

ELKINS, WEST VIRGINIA

Mountain State
FOREST FESTIVAL

Annually held on
1st weekend in October

ForestFestival.com | 304.636.1824

During the first weekend in October over 80,000 people visit the Mountain State Forest Festival in Elkins. Featuring demonstrations, arts and crafts, competitions, parades, live music, and more, this festival is one of the oldest, largest festivals in the whole state of West Virginia. It's also one of the best times to travel through the state and admire the fall foliage that graces our mountains and valleys.
